A hand-drawn sketch of a chat interface. The interface is contained within a large rectangular frame. At the top left, there is a small circle. Below it is a large rounded rectangle containing three horizontal wavy lines, representing a message bubble. To the right of this bubble is a small circle. Below the message bubble is a horizontal rounded rectangle containing a wavy line, representing a text input field. At the bottom of the interface is a horizontal rounded rectangle containing the text "Send Message". To the right of this rectangle is a circle containing a right-pointing arrow.
